Earth Day 2016: IT'S ABOUT TIME
Celebrating the Confluence of Art and Nature

We invite artists of all ages and experience to participate in the Musketaquid Earth Month Exhibit, a non-juried show that will run in The Umbrella Community Arts Center Gallery from April 7 through May 1, 2016. The Umbrella will take a 25% commission on all art sales

It's about time. What does this mean to you? Do you hear an urgent call to act on climate change? Is there enough time left? Or do you think of the natural world changing over time: from season to season, year to year, millennium to millennium? Do you see time as a linear progression of evolution and extinction, or as a cycle of rebirth and renewal? Express your response in any artistic medium: drawing, painting, sculpture, collage, multi-media, poetry, song, photography, dance ... the possibilities are endless!
